Deborah Price is the founder of the Money Coaching Institute which provides money coaching services to both individuals and businesses, and trains and certifies Money Coaches. She comes with 17 years experience in the Financial Services Industry, but her teachings are based on spirituality and helping you define and change your relationship with money. She is author of the book Money Magic that was the text for the recent Manifesting Prosperity Class Series with Rev Kathy.

“We need to stop giving away our power and to learn that the source of money, and of all things, exists within each of us. The most effective and powerful way to tap into this source is through our daily connection to Spirit.”

(p. 13, Money Magic)

“...what I hope to impart to you, is that only one thing is real: your connection to Spirit, however you define it, and your faith in that Spirit. There is no other security...Without this faith, we will not know true fulfillment, regardless of how much money we have...

(p. 8, Money Magic) ”

Workshop Cost: $29/person by Sept 12
$35 thereafter and at the door

10:30AM Sunday Service Guest Speaker

“Healing the Money Wound: Co-Creating a New Money Consciousness”

1:00-4:00PM Spiritual Warrior Bootcamp

In this interactive and lively session, participants will assess and identify their active and shadow archetypes around money which may be a factor in achieving the spiritual and balanced money life they would like.

We are all a combination of the eight money archetypes: Innocent, Victim, Warrior, Martyr, Fool, Creator/Artist, Tyrant, and Magician. The degree to which any one or more is most active in our life influences the way we are in the world of money. It's not "who" we are, but "where" we are, and if we feel it is not working for us or it keeps us from the spiritual and balanced money life we seek, then we need to call more on the Warrior.

Spiritual Warrior Bootcamp will teach you tools and techniques to keep your Warrior engaged, taking the Daily Right Action that is required to reach your desired results. You will also learn how to lessen the influence of your more challenging archetypes to achieve a more spiritual and balanced money life.
